SWEET PEA
FESTIVAL

August 5-7 | Bozeman, Montana

Welcome!

Welcome to Sweet Pea Festival 2011, our 34th year! We are thrilled to invite the community, volunteers, and visitors to enjoy all the fantastic events that are planned this year. I have found that volunteering, attending, and supporting such a unique event has always been an exciting opportunity filled with an overwhelming sense of community. I hope you, your family, and friends have the same chance to experience the excitement, whether you are at the park or taking part in the many other activities during the week prior to Festival weekend. The events kick off with the Sweet Pea Ball, followed by Chalk on the Walk, Bite of Bozeman, and the Sweet Pea Art Show. All of this, along with an event-packed weekend at Lindley Park, will demonstrate again the strong, simple mission of the Festival—to promote and cultivate the arts.

Your support with your admission purchase and attendance, along with all our volunteer and community support, is what allows us to continue the tradition of the Sweet Pea Festival—so thank you! We hope to see you this year and for many years to come.

T-Shirt Art Contest Winners

14 Years and Up Category “Sweet Pea Stacked”

BY NIKKI ERICKSON

Born in Roswell, New Mexico, Nikki holds a fine arts degree with an emphasis in Graphic Design from Eastern New Mexico University. Nikki enjoys designing in Photoshop and also creates custom letterpress invitations. For her t-shirt design, Nikki was inspired by typography and wanted to create a design that was simple and clean.

5–13 Years Category “Pull Along Sweet Peas”

BY KAREN PHILLIPS

Karen, a 6th grader at Sacajawea Middle School, was inspired by things planted in wagons for her t-shirt design. She also thought that since kids like wagons, it would make a good children’s t-shirt. Karen has won the state competition for the Smokey the Bear poster contest two years in a row. She enjoys riding horses and playing soccer. When she grows up Karen would like to be a wildlife biologist, a marine biologist, or an archeologist.

Poster Contest Winner

Mother-daughter duo Karen Lucky and Ivy Davis, both from Montana, were very pleased and surprised to learn that they had won the poster contest. Karen began pursuing oil painting seriously when pushed by her daughter Ivy in the early ’90s. Since then, she has been juried into numerous galleries. Ivy has enjoyed success as a freelance graphic designer and illustrator in Bozeman.

Karen and Ivy wanted a fine art feel in their entry, to set them apart from other artists, so they decided to include one of Karen’s oil paintings. They wanted a festive design with bright colors, the recognizable mountains around Bozeman, and the soft aspects of sweet pea flowers contrasted against the hard sense of barbed wire. Karen and Ivy will sign posters during the Sweet Pea Festival on Saturday, August 6, from 1–3pm at the merchandise tent. Sweet Pea Festival posters will be on sale at various outlets (please visit www.sweetpeafestival.org for listings). Posters are $20 and postcards are $1. If your business is interested in displaying a poster in your workplace, contact the Sweet Pea office at 586-4003.

Special Events

Sweet Pea Ball: Head Over Heels

SATURDAY 7/30 • 6:30PM • GRANTREE INN BALLROOM

Get ready for a topsy-turvy evening at this year's Sweet Pea Ball. The GranTree Inn's Grand Ballroom will be turned "Head Over Heels" and Little Elmo & the Mambo Kings will have you swinging, swaying, and be-bopping across the dance floor.

The Ball is the official kick-off for the Sweet Pea Festival. Doors to the GranTree Inn's Grand Ballroom open at 6pm, and a complimentary one-hour dance lesson begins at 6:30pm. The evening officially begins at 7:30pm and you can dance to your heart's content, or 11:30pm, whichever comes first. Dance competitions for Swing, West Coast

Swing, Lindy Hop, Salsa, and Argentine Tango will highlight the evening—enter one or all. 1950s attire is encouraged so polish your saddle shoes, dig out your horn-rimmed glasses, and dust off your poodle skirt! All ages are welcome.

Advance tickets are $15 per person at Cactus Records, Vargo's Jazz City, and the Sweet Pea Office, or $18 at the door. For more information please direct all inquiries to ball@sweetpeafestival.org.

Chalk on the Walk

TUESDAY 8/2 • ALL DAY • MAIN STREET

Decorate the sidewalks of downtown Bozeman with your own artwork! Chalk on the Walk is a favorite way for children and adults to express themselves during the Festival of the Arts. Create your own artistic statement on Main Street between Grand Avenue and Broadway. Chalk will be provided from 9:30am–10:30am at Grand Ave. Christian Church, 110 South Grand. No fee.

The Bite of Bozeman

WEDNESDAY 8/3 • 6–9PM • MAIN STREET

Come to historic downtown Bozeman and enjoy food and drinks provided by over 40 food vendors from Bozeman and surrounding areas with entertainment performed by Lang Termes and Friends, Scavocado, Fiddle Dundee, Bridger Creek Boys, and more!

Sweet Pea Children's Run

SATURDAY 8/6 • 10AM (PRECEDES PARADE) • MAIN STREET

The fun starts here! As is tradition, the Sweet Pea Children's 1K Run will lead the Sweet Pea Parade. What a great way for your family to spend their Saturday morning! The race begins 10am sharp at Main St. and 8th Ave. and ends at S. Church Ave.

Registration is going on now at the Bozeman Recreation Department, 415 N. Bozeman Avenue, between 8am–5pm, Monday–Friday. Walk-in registration will be at the 19th Avenue First Security Bank, August 3–5 from 10am–6pm. There is no race day registration—sorry, no exceptions. Entry fee is $2 through August 4 and $4 on August 5. There are several age divisions. Children 5 and under must be accompanied by an adult (there is no fee for the adults).

Please be at the start by 9:45am. Runners will receive an information sheet at registration; please read it with your child. For more details, call the Bozeman Recreation Department at 582-2290.

Parade: Hop on Board

SATURDAY 8/6 • 10AM (AFTER CHILDREN'S RUN) • MAIN ST.

The Sweet Pea parade is one of the community's favorite Festival events! Join us this year to watch participants "Hop on Board!" Any organization interested in having a float in this year's parade may download an application from our website or pick one up at the Sweet Pea office.

Church in the Park

SUNDAY 8/7 • 9:30AM • BOWL/MAIN STAGE

Join us for a community church service. Details about the service were not available at press time. Please visit www.sweetpeafestival.org for updates about the event.

Flower Show

Calling all local gardeners! Bring your sweet pea blossoms to display at the Flower Show tent in Lindley Park, near Information Headquarters. Entries are free and will be accepted Friday, August 5, from 11am–2pm. Judging will take place 2pm–5pm with winners announced at 5:30pm. Be sure to cast your vote for people's choice by 6pm on Saturday!

Back by popular demand, we will be hosting a Sunday afternoon tea at 1pm in the Flower Show tent. You are invited to join us and celebrate this special event! Please stop by and enjoy the fragrant sweet peas while sipping authentic English tea!

Music—Bowl/Main Stage

The Yes Team

FRIDAY 8/5 • 6:30PM

This San Diego-based trio is comprised of seasoned musicians TJ Moss, Kinnie Dye, and Jonathan Walsh. They are making waves coast to coast, charting hits with their unique brand of pop-rock and soul. Their debut album, Back to the Sea, includes a roster of original tunes, helmed by catchy hooks and soulful lyrics, guaranteed to make an audience dance.

Bearfoot

FRIDAY 8/5 • 8PM

Originally hailing from Alaska, Bearfoot has become one of the top names in the progressive bluegrass movement. Described as a “string band for the 21st century,” the quintet mixes “new-timey” bluegrass, folk, and alternative country to create the perfect blend of instrumentals and harmonies. The band has covered a lot of ground: recording four albums, winning top honors at the 2001 Telluride Bluegrass Festival, and garnering top reviews from national periodicals. Their latest album release, Doors and Windows, debuted in the number one spot on the Billboard Bluegrass Charts.

Montana Skies

SATURDAY 8/6 • 3PM

These award-winning musicians delve into music from Pink Floyd and Rush, to Vivaldi and House of the Rising Sun, as well as their own originals that have been featured everywhere from NPR to the Travel Channel. Montana Skies’ seemingly non-stop touring has taken them all across the US, and to Canada, Asia, and Russia. Combining elements of classical technique, jazz improv, and rock n’ roll, Jonathan’s guitar wizardry and Jenn’s blazing electric cello merge to create a truly remarkable sound. It is a fusion in the truest sense of the word.

Lavay Smith & Her Red Hot Skillet Lickers

SATURDAY 8/6 • 8PM

Led by the sultry vocals of Lavay Smith, this seven piece all-star band from San Francisco puts their own irresistible spin on classic standards made famous by the likes of Ella Fitzgerald, Billie Holiday, and Dinah

Washington, among others. The band has headlined shows at New York’s Lincoln Theatre, the Hollywood Bowl, and Chicago Jazz Festival. They have earned top reviews from numerous national publications.

Shawn Mullins

SUNDAY 8/7 • 3PM

Shawn is one of the finest singer-songwriters working in the industry today. Although he’s best known for his radio hits “Lullaby,” “Shimmer,” and “Beautiful Wreck,” Shawn’s music spans several genres including rock, soul, blues, alt country, and acoustic. His lyrics tell a story; they are filled with poetic introspection and quality hooks. His voice is soulful, captivating the listeners’ ears. His latest release, Light You Up, is roots and Americana music at its best.

Trees West Stage

Bebe LeBoeuf

SATURDAY 8/6 • 12PM

Bozeman’s premier Cajun-Zydeco band fuses accordion, fiddle, and a toe-tapping rhythm section into a guaranteed good time.

Jawbone Railroad

SATURDAY 8/6 • 1PM

A trio of seasoned local musicians Walt Burns, Blaise Arsenault, and Suzanne Ford play traditional folk, bluegrass, and original tunes.

Landlocked

SATURDAY 8/6 • 2PM

Landlocked brings the sea breeze of the islands to southwestern Montana. Their high-energy shows include a unique mix of Hawaiian surf-rock, reggae, island jams, hip-hop, and funk.

Intermountain Opera Bozeman

SUNDAY 8/7 • 12PM

Intermountain Opera Bozeman presents a comic one-act opera in English. IOB has produced professional opera in Bozeman since 1979.

Weatherwood

SUNDAY 8/7 • 1PM

This Irish trio picks, plucks, strikes, glides, and strums tunes on fiddle, harp, guitars, hammered dulcimer, mandolin, and much more!

One Ton Pig

SUNDAY 8/7 • 2PM

Based out of Jackson Hole, WY, this group performs original dance-worthy Americana and outlaw country music that is influenced by the likes of Johnny Cash and Waylon Jennings.

Dance Highlights

Dance Kaleidoscope

SATURDAY 8/6 • 6:30PM •
BOWL/MAIN STAGE

Founded in 1972, Dance Kaleidoscope is Indiana's premier professional contemporary dance company. DK's repertoire includes over 50 pieces, ranging from dark and dramatic to light and hysterical. At the Festival, they will perform a light, fun concert called Summer Musicals/Elvis Sizzle. The first act, entitled There's No Business Like Show Business, is set to several songs from Broadway musicals, and the second act features Elvis Presley tunes with a funky 1960s vibe. Dance Kaleidoscope's afternoon family workshop on the Cypress Point stage includes The Dance Show, an interactive performance-based program focusing on the basic definition of dance (shapes moving through space to a beat). All audience members are invited to join dancers on the stage to create a community dance.

Theatre Highlights

FOR PERFORMANCE TIMES AND LOCATIONS, SEE PAGES 6-7

This year's theatre offerings showcase an exciting variety of genres! Events kick off on Friday with a beloved Sweet Pea tradition, Bozeman's own Montana Shakespeare in the Parks. This nationally recognized company will perform Shakespeare's delightfully witty comedy, Much Ado About Nothing. The fun continues Saturday with an original, fully-costumed production entitled, The Secret Life of Toys by the Kaleidoscope Theater Players. Next, The Spontaneous Combustibles will light up the stage with their fast-paced, hilarious style of improv. The Equinox Theatre rounds out Saturday's offerings with a wonderful variety of performances, including an original radio play that features a full cast and live music and sound effects. On Sunday, watch Desert Adventures and Ancient Treasures to see the amazing talent produced by Kaleidoscope Youth Theater Camp. Sunday features more improvisational merriment from the Spontaneous Combustibles, followed by the Silly Moose's zany brand of improv for children of all ages. Montana Shakespeare in the Parks winds up the weekend with Shakespeare's multi-faceted romantic comedy, The Merchant of Venice.

Family Highlights

Regina Carpenter, Storyteller

SATURDAY 8/6 • 12PM • FAMILY STAGE
SUNDAY 8/7 • 12PM • FAMILY STAGE

Since 1993, Regina has been motivating and inspiring audiences throughout the country with a diverse repertoire of world stories, folktales, myths, music, and personal stories of her hometown, Clayton, New York. In each story, Regina mixes mirth, music, and everyday events into myths and muses about life, death, and nothing in particular.

Regina's voice can, at a moment's notice, be light as a feather or leap with sudden power. Best of all is the sheer joy she communicates in telling her tales. Regina is a nationally acclaimed performer and educator and has received the Parents' Choice Gold Award, the Parent's Guide to Children's Media Award, and the Leonard Bernstein Fellowship for Artists in Education.

Matt Baker Comedy and Stunt Show

SATURDAY 8/6 • 1PM • FAMILY STAGE
SUNDAY 8/7 • 1PM • FAMILY STAGE

Voted Seattle's funniest prop comic, Matt Baker doesn't really know how he decided to become a juggler, but he does know that ever since he was a little kid, he's had a passion for making people laugh. Imagine a job description that involves spearing catapulting vegetables in mid-air and juggling with your mouth. Matt has performed in 14 different countries and appeared on numerous television shows. His show is action-packed with audience participation and perpetual laughter.

Thank You JoAnn Brekhus!

2011 marked the close of JoAnn Brekhus' 19 years as Executive Director of the Sweet Pea Festival. We greatly appreciate her steadfast dedication and commitment to this important community event.

Visual Arts

Juried and Open Art Shows

RECEPTION: THURSDAY 8/4 • 6PM–8PM •
BOZEMAN PUBLIC LIBRARY COMMUNITY ROOM

The Sweet Pea Juried and Open Art Shows will once again be held in the Atrium Gallery at the Bozeman Public Library. A seamless exhibition of juried and open artwork in diverse media will feature many talented artists.

The public is invited to attend the opening reception on Thursday, August 4. The show runs from Thursday, August 4 to Friday, August 26, and may be viewed during the library's normal business hours: Monday–Thursday, 10am–8pm; and Friday–Saturday, 10am–5pm.

Arts and Crafts Vendors

Always a highlight of the Festival, 100 artists and crafts people from the Gallatin Valley and around the nation will converge in Lindley Park to sell their wares to the public. Wander under the canopy of shady trees and explore the arts and crafts vendors. Sales will be open during the following times: Friday from 4pm–8pm, Saturday from 11am–6pm, and Sunday from 10am–5pm.

Children's "StoryBookLand": Fun for All Ages

SAT 8/6 & SUN 8/7 • 12PM–3PM • NEAR THE FAMILY STAGE

SATURDAY ACTIVITIES

The "StoryBookLand" wall: Older children paint a one-foot-square portion of a larger mural featuring Sweet Pea and Bozeman.

Local featured artists: Our "StoryBookLand" artists demonstrate illustration. You can also get your face painted, paint on an easel, or make bubbles.

Wood sculptures: Design and build your own unique creations.

Musical maze: Get lost in a maze of musical instruments that can be played. The fun concludes in making your own rainstick.

Paper-mâché masks: Make a mask of your favorite storybook character.

SUNDAY ACTIVITIES

The "StoryBookLand" wall and local featured artists: see above.

Tie-dye: Bring your own t-shirt to transform into a fun tie-dye design.

Sock puppets: Bring your mismatched socks and create your own sock puppet character.

Chinese lanterns: Make your own lanterns out of paper-mâché.

Celebrating Sweet Pea's Roots and YOU—Our Sponsor!

The Sweet Pea Festival was created in 1978 by a group of approximately seventeen Bozeman-ites dedicated to staging a three-day arts festival. This gathering was meant to be a "celebration of creativity" among area artists and the community. The group derived the Festival's name and some of the planned events from the Sweet Pea Carnivals that were held in Bozeman in the early 1900s. Now in its 34th year, the Sweet Pea Festival remains true to its original vision of celebrating the arts. From refusing corporate sponsorship to relying on over 1,500 volunteers to make the Festival happen, Sweet Pea truly is your event!

Quick Sweet Pea Facts

Sweet Pea's Mission: Promote and cultivate the arts.

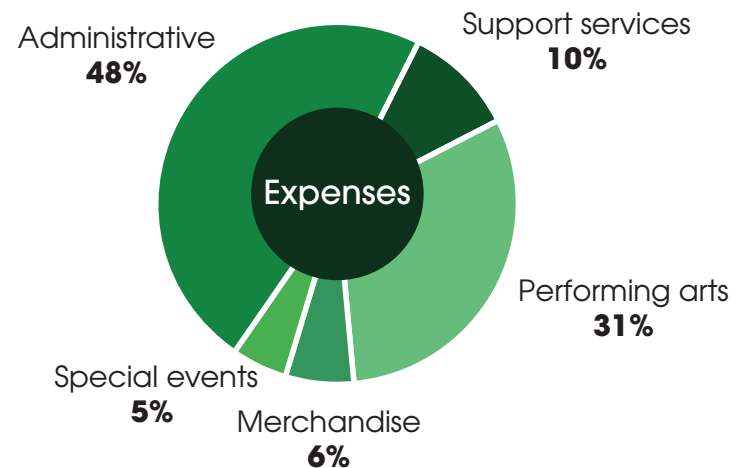

Sponsorship: You, the festival-goer, sponsor 100% of Sweet Pea.

Community Involvement: Every year over 1,500 individual volunteers and businesses provide their time and services to facilitate the event. All contributors are recognized equally for their contribution and commitment.

Value: One low admission price for the three-day event makes the Festival the best entertainment value in the valley. Where else can you get over 30 hours of family entertainment for under $20?

Net Gain: Any net gains are given back to the community in the form of grants supporting the arts and art education, special projects, and park improvements.
