SWEET PEA
A Festival of the Arts

AUGUST 4 5 6
Bozeman Montana 2023

Where Art & Community Meet
What do you love about the Sweet Pea Festival?

Some of us come to see the smiles on the faces of our friends and loved ones, from the youngest kids to our most senior elders. We come to dance, to listen to new music, to meet people, and to enjoy all kinds of art. This is the weekend our community anticipates for months. We come together and work hard to create and re-create the traditions that make lasting memories. So enjoy some fun food, relax in the shade of our amazing park, tell stories, and make history. This is your festival. Stop by the headquarters tent or send us a message to let us know what you love about Sweet Pea so we can keep the traditions going for the next generations.

Mid-Life Crisis, or Opportunity to Grow?

In 2027, Sweet Pea will hit a landmark occasion—our 50th Festival!

Did you know Sweet Pea is a NON-PROFIT 501c3 organization? We host this amazing arts Festival every year for our community with the hope that we make enough money to cover all costs AND have money left over to give back to the community in the form of grants, special projects, art education and more. (We give to everything art-related!)

Over the years, Sweet Pea has expanded to include two Art Shows (Summer and Winter), an Ice Sculpture Competition, and the Gingerbread House Competition held during the annual Christmas Stroll. Yet, we wonder what more we can and should do. What programs or projects can we provide our community? How can we best support our artists? And let’s not forget the budget and program cuts happening in our schools. What can we do to support students and art education? So many questions. We would love your input as we envision Sweet Pea’s future. Scan the following QR code to be directed to a brief survey and tell us what you think. We may be 46 years old, but we still think there’s a lot of growing to be done!

Kris Olenicki
Executive Director
Sweet Pea, A Festival of the Arts
(Yep, that’s our legal name!)

P.S. Be sure stop by Bogert Park and visit SLAM on Saturday and Sunday to see additional artist booths, art demos, and more. While there, check out the amazing mosaic created by artist Lisa Lord and funded by SLAM and Sweet Pea, at the entrance to the pool. Sweet Pea is proud to work with and be a sponsor of SLAM – because there can never be too much art or collaboration in our community!

Margo Cilker
Enterprise, OR
SATURDAY 4:00 PM • THE BOWL

Margo Cilker sings with a sparse beauty that can only be heard to be appreciated. Far from mainstream country her unique sound hearkens to the early days of Lucinda Williams along with the songwriting prowess of Woody Guthrie. Her sophomore album, Valley of Heart’s Delight, refers to a place she can’t return: California’s Santa Clara Valley, as it was known before the orchards were paved over and became more famous for Silicon than apricots. This 11-song collection intertwines family and nature at once precious and endangered, beautiful and exhausting. Her debut album Pohoryle, was nominated for UK Americana Album of The Year, alongside Brandi Carlile and Robert Plant, and earned Cilker a slew of festival performances and tours supporting American Aquarium, Hayes Carll, and Drive-By Truckers. www.margocilkermusic.com

The lyrics of One Leaf songs express both love and joy, as well as moments of heartache, delivered in harmony, with a laugh and a wink to the old masters from which all music is born. Having shared the stage with many local, regional and National acts, Bozeman's own One Leaf is sure to take you on a special musical journey. facebook.com/oneleafband

Dwayne Dopsie & The Zydeco Hellraisers

Lafayette, LA
SATURDAY 6:00 PM • THE BOWL

Dwayne Dopsie grew up teaching himself how to play accordion, watching videos of his father and Clifton Chenier, recording himself and playing over and over for hours until it was right. With a combined 100 years of experience playing Zydeco music, the energy, true talent, and exuberance that Dwayne Dopsie and the Zydeco Hellraisers emit from stage makes it obvious that there is no competition for this band. They also add a bit of rhythm and blues, funk, rock and roll, reggae and pop to their performances. Not only has Dwayne’s band mastered zydeco music but he’s won multiple awards, such as a GRAMMY in 2022 for Jazz Fest a New Orleans Story and GRAMMY nominations in 2012 and 2018. Dwayne doesn’t confine himself to the stage; he interacts with the crowd, blurring the barrier between performer and audience. Don’t miss this one-of-a-kind performance!

Monophonics

SATURDAY 8:00 PM • THE BOWL

The world’s premier psychedelic soul band, Monophonics, cordially invites you to attend the grand re-opening of the once thriving, once vibrant establishment, the legendary Sage Motel. What started as a quaint motor lodge and a common pitstop for travelers and truckers in the 1940s morphed into a bohemian’s hang by the 1960s and 1970s. Sage Motel, Monophonics’ fifth studio album since 2012, tells its story. Once again produced by brilliant bandleader Kelly Finnigan, the album captures a timeless sound that blends heavy soul with psych-rock. With their previous album, It’s Only Us, selling over 10,000 physical units and garnering over 20 million streams, Monophonics have built a reputation over the past decade as one of the most impactful bands in the country. If these walls of the Sage Motel could talk, this is what they’d say. So join us as we examine where the stories are told and experiences unfold. Sink into a soft pillow of soulful psychedelia...down at the Sage Motel.

SUNDAY 12:00 PM • THE BOWL

His recent album Ravens hit on ethereal parts of human life. Love, connections, regret, death and the future are all themes interwoven into Matt’s songs. Fans have taken notice with numerous first place results in 2022’s Bozeman’s Choice Readers Poll.

It’s no secret that great art comes from the margins, from those who are either pushed to create from inner forces, or who create to show they deserve to be recognized. Los Angeles-based street singer, guitarist, and roots music revolutionary Sunny War has always been an outsider, always felt the drive to define her place in the world through music and songwriting. Her restless spirit, a byproduct of growing up semi-nomadic with a single mother, led her to Venice Beach, California, where she’s been grinding the pavement for some years now, making a name for her prodigious guitar work and incisive songwriting, which touches on everything from police violence to alcoholism to love found and lost. Her new single, No Reason, has garnered nearly a million plays in a few short months and is featured on Sirius Radio. This song has vaulted her into one of music’s best up-and-coming artists of the year and has found her on numerous late night and early morning national television broadcasts.

Corb Lund has received multiple CCMA, Juno, and international award nominations and wins. Agricultural Tragic, his first album of original material in five years, came out in June of 2021. Met with acclaim, No Depression states, “Eloquent and plainspoken, the excellent Agricultural Tragic finds the affable country rocker exploring his roots as a rancher and rodeo rider while striving to adapt this traditional identity to the challenging modern world… Corb Lund radiates authenticity from first note to last.” Agricultural Tragic is a highlight in Lund’s long and successful career: His 7th album, Cabin Fever, debuted at #1 on the Billboard Canadian charts in 2012; three of his records have been certified Gold; and his 2015 studio album, Things That Can’t Be Undone, cemented his status as one of the best contemporary country singer/songwriters working today. Last Fall, Corb released Cover Your Tracks, an unexpected 8-song collection of covers previously recorded by AC/DC, Nancy Sinatra, Billy Joel, Marty Robbins, Bob Dylan, The Eagles, Willie Nelson & Ray Charles, and Dr. Hook & The Medicine Show. With a long family lineage of ranchers and rodeo people, Lund is as authentic as they come. Embracing both his Western heritage and his indie rock past through his music, Lund is known to filter a range of cowboy themes past and present through his unique lens—from rough-and-tumble tales of lawless frontier saloons, to the somber realities of running a modern family ranch. www.corblund.com

WOOD
Giving Back

Did you know that Sweet Pea has been donating its profits back to the community since 1986? Since our first grant to Montana Shakespeare in the Parks of $1000, we have given over $424,500 in the form of grants and sponsorships for the arts, arts education, and special projects, to 86 different community organizations. Some of the recipients include: Bozeman Sculpture Park, Kaleidoscope Youth Theatre, The Cottonwood Club, KGLT, Bozeman Film Society, Museum of the Rockies, Youth Imperative, Verge Theater, SLAM Festival, Intermountain Opera, and many of our schools—MSU, Bozeman High School, Hawthorne, Whittier, and Sacajawea. Sweet Pea’s mission is simply “to promote and cultivate the arts.” By attending the Festival you are not only enjoying a wonderful weekend of music, theatre, dance, art, and workshops, you are contributing to the vibrancy and support of the arts community in and around Bozeman.

Montana Mural Project

Highlighting Our Threatened & Endangered Species Through Art

Inspired by the highly successful Audubon Society’s project in New York, we are commissioning 12 artists to paint a mural of one of Montana’s threatened and endangered species. These murals will highlight the plight of the species, educate the public about their importance, and the need to protect their habitats, while highlighting the talents of regional artists and adding to Bozeman’s public art. Five murals are complete and once they are all completed there will be a website showing where they are located and more information on the artists and the species. We are also looking for artists to submit ideas for these endangered species: Lynx, Black Footed Ferret, White Bark Pine. If you have a side of a building or other location that you’d like to “donate” to this project, please email ed@sweetpeafestival.org.

The Yellowstone Regional International Youth Silent Film Festival

TUESDAY, AUG 1 • 7:00 PM • TUNE UP BAR @ KIMPTON ARMORY HOTEL

Held in Bozeman every spring, The Yellowstone Regional International Youth Silent Film Festival accepts films from student filmmakers from Montana, Wyoming, North Dakota, and Idaho. After competing regionally, the top films are screened at the International Festival in Portland, Oregon, every June, competing with student filmmakers from across the globe. Filmmakers select one of ten pre-recorded silent film scores and then write and film a 3-minute silent movie, telling their unique stories. Students 20 years of age or younger may submit films they create in school or at home. This one-hour program showcases the 20 local filmmakers that are going to compete in Portland.

Sponsored by Gallatin Realty Group
During the Festival, wristbands are sold only at the Festival Box Office located in front of the Bozeman Public Library. (See back cover for box office hours.) Before the Festival you may buy online at any time or at the outlets listed on the back cover starting July 5th.
